3. No Children's Data Collection

- 3.1. The Company understands the importance of protecting children's privacy. The Company's services are not intended for children under eighteen (18) years of age nor is the Company's website designed for use by children. Therefore, the Company does not knowingly or specifically collect children's personal data. If the Company collects such data mistakenly or unintentionally, the Company shall delete the information at the earliest possible once it obtains knowledge thereof. If the Client becomes aware of such data collection, he/she shall notify the Company at privacy@hfmarkets.co.uk.

4. Use of Personal Data

4.1. The Company collects and processes Personal Data which are required for the evaluation, establishment and maintenance of the contractual relationship between the Company and the Client and in order to comply with applicable Data Protection Legislation and applicable laws and regulations governing the provision of financial services. In some cases, the Company may also process the Client's Personal Data to pursue its legitimate interests or those of third parties, provided that the Clients' interests and fundamental rights are not overridden by those of the Company or the third party.

4.2. Specifically, the Client's Personal Data will most commonly be used in the following circumstances:

(a) Where the Company needs to perform the contract it has entered with the Client or in order to take certain steps prior to entering into a contract with the Client

Processing is necessary for the Company in order to provide the Client with its products and services, and more specifically in order:

- To verify the Client's identity and carry out any required credit checks;
- To ensure that the Client meets the suitability requirements to use the Company's products and services;
- To manage the account the Client holds with the Company;
- To process the Client's transactions; and
- To send to the Client any information about transactions/post-transactions services.

If the Client does not provide the requested Personal Data, the Company may be unable to offer the Client with its products and/or services.

(b) Where the Company needs to comply with a legal obligation

As an investment firm, the Company is required to comply with certain legal and regulatory obligations which may involve the processing of Personal Data. Such obligations and requirements impose on the Company necessary data processing activities for identify verifications, compliance with court orders, tax law or other reporting obligations and anti-money laundering controls.

(c) Where the Company has legitimate interests to use the Client's Personal Data

More specifically, the Company may process the Personal Data for the following purposes:

- To develop or enhance its products and services;
- To enhance the security of the Company's network and information systems;
- To identify, prevent and investigate fraud and other unlawful activities, unauthorised transactions and other liabilities and manage risk exposure;
- To maintain its accounts and records;
- To manage its business operations and comply with internal policies and procedures;
- To defend, investigate or prosecute legal claims;
- To receive professional advice (such as legal advice); and
- For the analysis of statistical data which helps the Company in providing its Clients with better products and services in the future. It should be noted that the Company anonymises and aggregate such data so that they do not directly or indirectly reveal the Clients' identities. The Company may provide this statistical data to third parties (as described in more detail in Section 8) solely for statistical purposes and in an effort to improve the Company's marketing campaign.

(d) Where the Client has given his consent

- The Company will ask for the Client's consent when the Company wishes to provide marketing information to its Clients in relation to its products or services which may be of interest to the Client.
- The Company will ask for Clients' permission to access their mobile device call log for the sole purpose of completing the phone number verification process.

- The Company will ask for Clients' permission to electronically verify their identity by providing their personal information to identity verification providers.
- The Company will ask the clients' consent to record their special category data in relation to their health for account management purposes.

The Client may withdraw such consent at any time. This right doesn't affect the lawfulness of processing that was based on that consent before its withdrawal.

5. Cookies

- 5.1. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on a user's computer for record-keeping purposes. The Company uses cookies on its website(s) to ensure and provide the Client with a good experience when he browses our website and also allows us to improve our website.
- 5.2. To understand more about the kind of cookies we use and how you can control and delete cookies, please see our Cookie Policy.

6. Links to other websites

- 6.1. The Company's website contains or may contain links to other websites or social media platforms of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave the Company's website, you should note that the Company does not have any control over those other websites. Therefore, the Company cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this Policy. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.
- 6.2. The Company will not be liable for the unlawful or unauthorized use of the Client's Personal Data due to misuse and/or malicious use and/or negligence and/or misplacement of the Client's passwords either by him/her or any third party.

7. Client Records Retention Periods

- 7.1. Under the applicable laws and regulations, the Company is required to keep records containing Client Personal Data, trading information, account opening documents, communications and anything else which relates to the Client after the execution of each transaction and/or for 6 (six) years of the termination of the business relationship.

8. Sharing and Disclosure of Personal Data

- 8.1. In the course of the performance of the Company's contractual and statutory obligations, the Client's Personal Data may be disclosed to third parties. Most of such third parties enter into contractual arrangements with the Company by which they observe data protection and confidentiality according to applicable Data Protection Legislation.
- 8.2. Under the circumstances referred to above, recipients of Personal Data may be, for example:
- (a) third party payment service providers who help the Company provide its Clients the services of securely deposit and withdrawal to and from a Client's account;
 - (b) other service providers that the Company has chosen to support it in the effective provision of its products and services by offering technological expertise, solutions and support;
 - (c) governmental and regulatory bodies, including law enforcement authorities and FCA, in connection with enquiries, proceedings or investigations by such parties or in order to enable the Company to comply with its legal and regulatory requirements;
 - (d) credit reference and fraud prevention agencies, third party authentication service providers and other financial institutions for the purposes of credit checking, fraud prevention and anti-money laundering controls;
 - (e) external consultants including legal and tax consultants;
 - (f) data reporting service providers;
 - (g) market research companies and call centers;
 - (h) affiliates of the Company; and

- (i) tied agents of the Company.

9. Business Transfers Legal Requirements

- 9.1. If the Company is involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, sale of company assets, or transition of service to another provider, Client's Personal Data and other information may be transferred to a successor or affiliate as part of that transaction along with other assets.

10. Personal Data Transfers outside the United Kingdom

- 10.1. The Company is committed to protecting Personal Data especially when these are to be transferred outside the United Kingdom. The Data Protection Legislation allows personal data to be transferred outside of the United Kingdom if the third country is covered by UK "adequacy regulations" or if adequate data protection measures and safeguards are in place.
- 10.2. Adequate safeguards may be put in place in a number of ways including using Standard Contractual Clauses, Binding Corporate Rules, Binding Corporate Rules for Processors (BCRs) if applicable or other contractual arrangements. Where adequate safeguards are established, the rights of Clients continue to be protected even after their data has been transferred outside the United Kingdom for processing.
- 10.3. The Company may transfer or disclose the Personal Data of Clients inside or outside the United Kingdom to any company within the HFM Group as well as third party service providers (i.e. Processors) who are engaged on our behalf and are processing such data based on our instructions and in compliance with this policy and other appropriate confidentiality and security measures or arrangements.

11. Marketing Communications – Services Subscriptions Preferences

- 11.1. The Company may process Personal Data to tell its Clients about products, services and offers that may be of interest to the Client. The Company may only process such Personal Data if it has obtained the Client's explicit consent to do so.

11.2. If the Client no longer wishes to receive any promotional communications, he may opt-out of receiving them by following the instructions included in each communication or by updating his email subscription preferences within the Client account area.

12. Personal Data Rights

12.1. In compliance with the GDPR, Clients (referred as “Data Subjects”) have the following rights in relation to their Personal Data:

- (a) Right of access: The Client has the right to be informed whether the Company is processing his/her Personal Data, and if so, to provide the Client with a copy of that Personal Data.
- (b) Right to rectification: The Client is entitled to request that the Company corrects or completes his/her Personal Data if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- (c) Right to erasure: This enables the Client to ask the Company to erase or remove the Client’s Personal Data under certain circumstances, such as when the Client withdraws his consent.
- (d) Right to restrict processing: This enables the Client to ask the Company to restrict the processing of the Client’s Personal Data if:
 - it is not accurate;
 - it has been used unlawfully but the Client doesn’t want it to be deleted;
 - it is not relevant any more, but the Client wants the Company to keep it for use in possible legal claims;
 - the Client has already asked the Company to stop using his Personal Data but he is waiting for the Company to confirm if it has legitimate grounds to use such Personal Data.
- (e) Right to data portability: The Client has the right to obtain his/her Personal Data provided to the Company in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

- (f) Right to object: The Client may ask the Company at any time to stop processing his/her Personal Data, and the Company will do so:
- If the Company is relying on a legitimate interest to process the Client's Personal Data and the Company cannot demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, or
 - If the Company is processing Client's Personal Data for direct marketing.
- (g) Rights in relation to automated decision-making and profiling: The Client has the right to be free from decisions based solely on automated processing of his/her Personal Data, including profiling, that affect him/her, unless such profiling is necessary for entering into, or the performance of, a contract between Client and the Company or the Client provides explicit consent.
- (h) Right to withdraw consent: If the Company relies on the Client's consent to process his/her Personal Data, the Client has the right to withdraw that consent at any time. This will not affect the lawfulness of the processing that took place on the basis of the Client's prior consent.
- (i) Right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority: If the Client has a concern about the Company's privacy practices, including the way in which the Company handled his/her Personal Data, the Client can report it to the Information Commissioner's Office ('ICO').

To exercise any of the above rights, the Client may contact the Company at privacy@hfmarkets.co.uk or by post at postal address: HF Markets (UK) Limited, Bloomsbury Building, 10 Bloomsbury Way, Holborn, London WC1A 2SL, United Kingdom.

13. Automated decision-making and profiling

- 13.1. When you make an application for account opening we will use systems to make an automated assessment of your knowledge and experience through the evaluation of an appropriateness test. The Company is required under MiFID II to perform the assessment to determine the extent to which the service and/or product are suitable to your needs and circumstances and appropriate to your level of knowledge and expertise. For the purpose of the assessment, and for your best interest, you are requested to provide complete, accurate, and up-to-date information, as your response will be used to determine whether you are eligible for the account with the Company. In such cases, you have the right to contact us to:

- (a) give you information about the processing of your personal data (please also see Section 12 of this Policy in relation to your rights); and/or
- (b) request that one of our employees examines your application and obtain an explanation for the automated decision reached. You also have the right to challenge such a decision. Following such a request, we will reassess your application, taking into consideration both the reasons that a particular automated decision was reached as well as your own point of view.

14. Confidentiality and Security of Personal Data

- 14.1. Personal Data which the Company holds is to be treated by the Company as confidential and will not be used for any purpose other than those specified in this Policy.
- 14.2. Any Personal Data that the Client provides to the Company will be treated as confidential and shared only with the parties set out in Section 8 of this Policy.
- 14.3. Such Personal Data will not be disclosed to any other third party except if such disclosure is required under any regulatory or legal proceedings.
- 14.4. The Personal Data that the Client provides in connection with registering as a user of the website(s) or for the Services is classified as Registration Information. The Company offers high protection of the Registration Information provided by the Client. The Client can access his Registration Information through a password selected by him which is encrypted and known only to the Client. The Client must be careful and protect his password from any third parties. Registration Information is safely stored on secure servers that only authorized personnel have access to via password. The Company encrypts all Personal Data as it is transferred to the Company and thus makes all necessary effort to prevent unauthorized parties from viewing any such information.

14.5. Personal Data provided to the Company that is not Registration Information also resides on secure servers and is again accessible only to authorized personnel via password. This information is not accessible by the Client; therefore, no password is provided to view or modify this information.

15. Amendments to this Policy

15.1. The Company reserves the right to review and amend this Policy from time to time for any reason and notify the Clients of any such amendments accordingly by posting an updated version of this Policy on the Company's website(s). The Company will notify you about any material changes to this Policy by placing a notice on its website or by communicating with you directly.

15.2. The Client is responsible for regularly reviewing the Policy and any amendments thereof.

16. Enquiries and Contact Details

16.1. For any general enquiries regarding this Policy please contact the Company by emailing the Customer Support Department at support@hfmarkets.co.uk.
